EVENTINGS BY SHARON LOUDEN

by sabine7 / November 28, 2011

Sharon Louden has worked with the line in so many different forms over the years, yet there is always a freshness about her work. Eventings is a series of paintings on canvas and on paper that employs thick strokes of paint that are lines in various combinations of colour, length, transparency and movement. All are appealing in their initial simplicity, but if you look long enough you may crack the code.

Louden's work will be shown at the Pulse Art Fair during the Miami art fairs this week.
